- Event Coordinator- Prof. D.S.Suryawanshi and Prof. S. R. Bedse

Course Objectives:

- To develop an awareness of Emotional Intelligence models
- To recognize the benefits of Emotional Intelligence
- To understand how to use emotion to facilitate thought and behavior
- To know and utilize the difference between reaction and considered response

Course Outcomes:

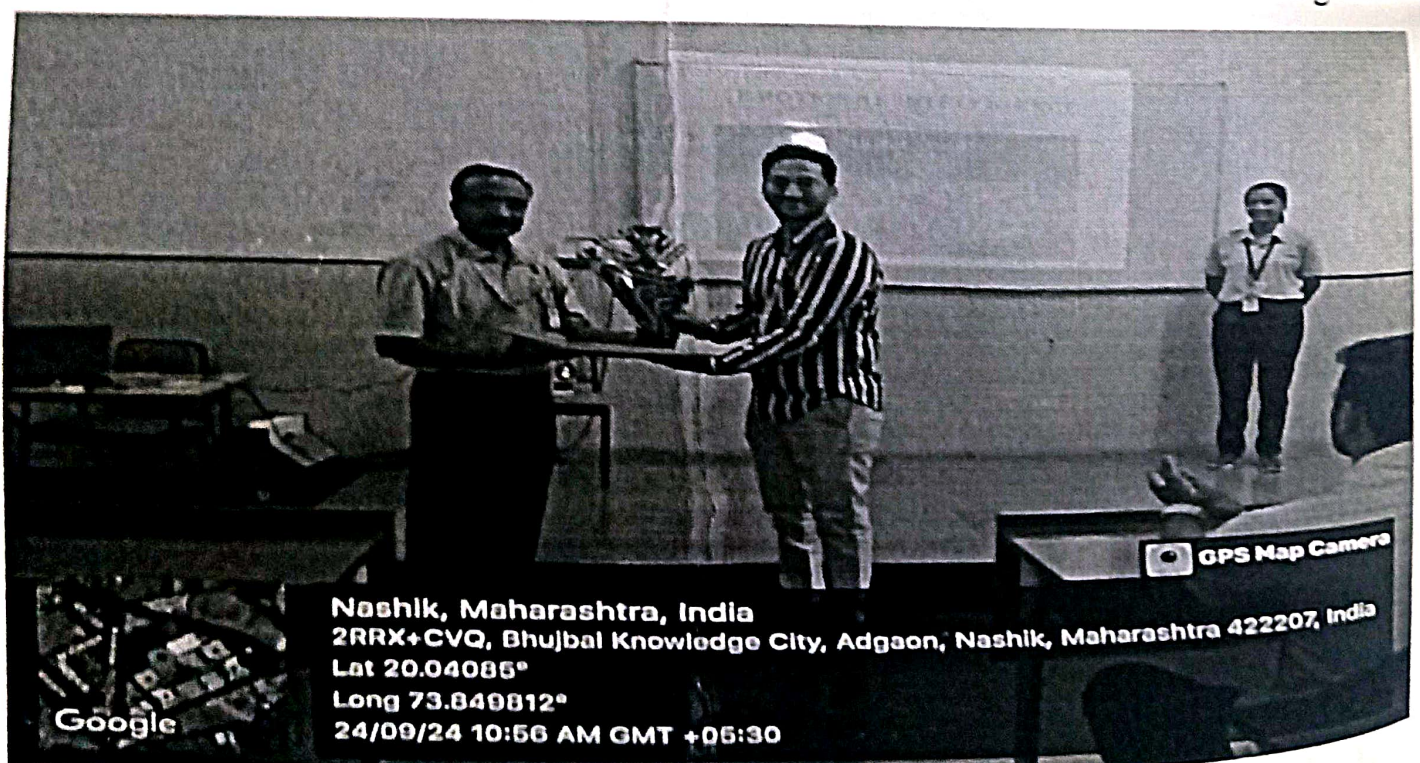

- On completion of the course, learner will be able to
- CO1: Expand their knowledge of emotional patterns in themselves and others
- CO2: Discover how to manage their emotions, and positively influence themselves and others
- CO3: Build more effective relationships with people at work and home
- CO4: Positively influence and motivate colleagues, team members and managers
- CO5: Increase their leadership effectiveness by creating an atmosphere that engages others

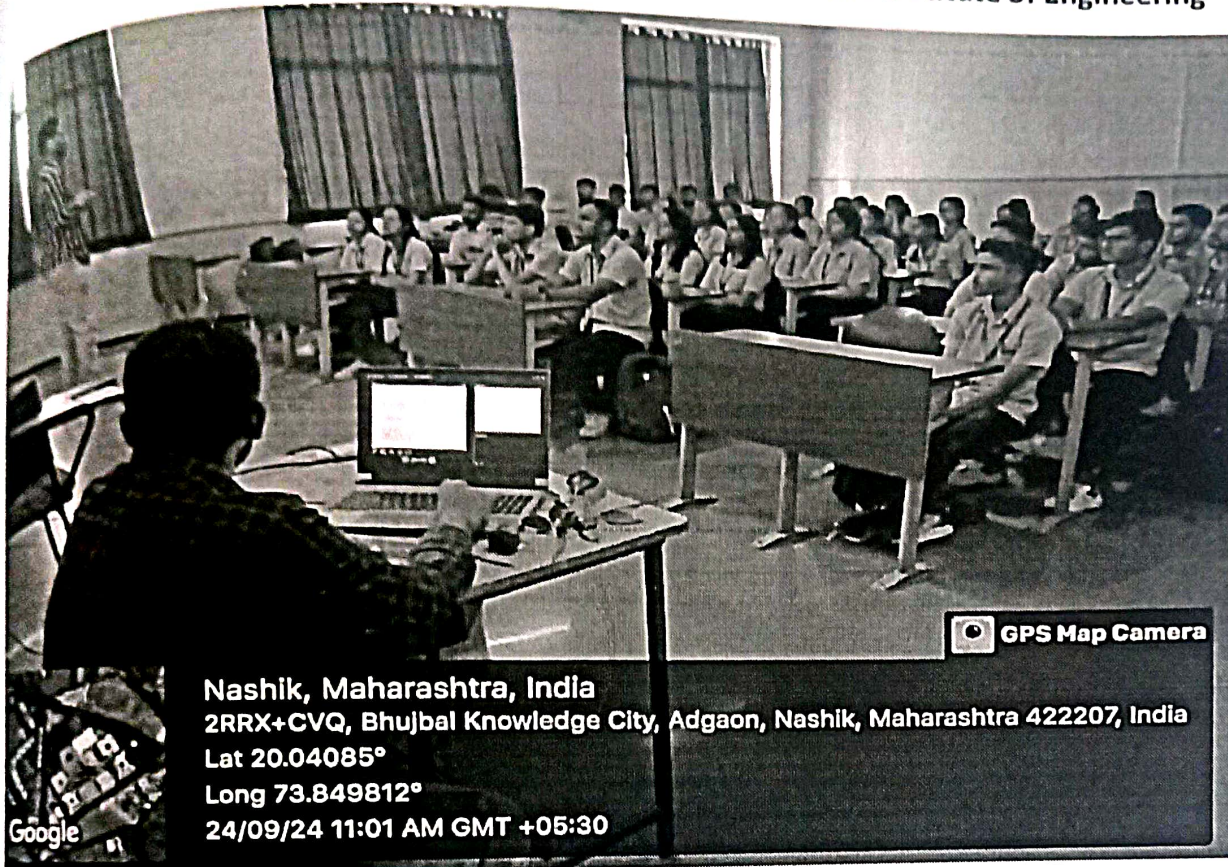

Summary:

An expert session on emotional intelligence by Dr. Anup Bharti would likely explore various aspects of emotional intelligence (EI) with a mix of academic insight and practical applications. Here's a potential outline of what such a lecture might cover:

1. Introduction to Emotional Intelligence: Defining EI and its significance in personal and professional contexts, differentiating between IQ and EQ.
2. Components of EI:
 - Self-awareness: Recognizing one's emotions and their impact.
 - Self-regulation: Managing impulses and emotions.
 - Motivation: Internal drive and resilience.
 - Empathy: Understanding others' emotions.
 - Social Skills: Effective communication and relationship management.
3. Importance in Leadership: How emotionally intelligent leaders inspire and foster team productivity.
4. Practical Applications: Using EI to handle stress, improve communication, and resolve conflicts in daily life and workplaces.
5. Challenges in Developing EI: Barriers and strategies for overcoming emotional blind spots.

In this lecture, Dr. Anup Bharti might draw on his own experiences, research, or case studies to illustrate how emotional intelligence can be cultivated and applied in different areas of life. He may also discuss current trends or emerging research in the field of emotional intelligence.
