Session 1: PET Show

Time: 10:00AM – 12:00PM

An animal kept as a pet is considered a companion for entertainment or a domestic animal. Pets are known for their great looks, lively nature and loyalty and can serve as a source of comfort and support. The unconditional love of a pet can do more than keeping your company. Nothing compares to the joy of coming home to a loyal companion. A pet show was organised on same day in first session. By posing the necessary questions to the contestants and inspecting the pets, the judge evaluated the pets as per the prior announced evaluation criteria. The gathering enjoyed the pet show and the amusing antics of the pets which inspired the crowd to have a pet and appreciate its companionship. Some first year students participated in this show with their pets.

Session 2: Nukkad Natak

Time: 12:00AM - 2:00PM

India has history about NUKKAD NATAK means street play to give information about system in society, Street plays are unique in their ability to captivate and engage diverse audiences. With vibrant performances, relatable characters, and thought-provoking scripts, they effortlessly break down barriers and reach people from all walks of life. By bringing entertainment and education together, street plays provide an interactive platform for the community to connect emotionally with the issues at hand. They create a safe space for open dialogue and encourage active participation, ensuring that the messages conveyed are deeply internalized. Beyond raising awareness, street plays have the unique ability to influence behaviors and inspire change. The emotional impact of live performances combined with relatable narratives leaves a lasting impression on the audience. During this play the students played most beautiful and an enthusiastic subject women empowerment.

Session 3: Rock Show

Time: 3:00AM - 5:00PM

The last session is scheduled for very energetic show “Rock Show”. Rock concerts are often associated with certain kinds of behavior. Dancing, shouting, singing along with the band, and ostentatious displays by the musicians are common, though some very successful rock bands have avoided gratuitous flash in favor of understated performances focusing on the music itself. Even so, rock concerts often have a playful atmosphere both for the band and the audience. The students actively participated in this show and presented their talent through rock music. The audience were enchanted through all performances.
